Mackerel News.

The gasoline auxiliary sch. Dorcas of this port, owned by Capt. Frank Foster and commanded by Capt. George W. Dixon, was at Portland last evening with 130 barrels of fresh mackerel. It is reported that the fish were taken off Seguin.

Vessels arriving at Sidney, C. B., from Newfoundland report fishing on the coast as very poor and bank fishing much below the average.

The good hauls made off Minot's light on Tuesday indicate that there is some body of fish in Boston Bay, and the prospects at present are as good there as anywhere.

The fare of sch. Arrow at Boston Wednesday was doubly caught. Capt. Jewett got around what he knew was a big school and not daring to trust his seine, called out to Capt. Joseph of the Angieles to set and pursue up around him. This was done, then the Arrow's seine was pursed way up and the fish saved. The precaution was a good one, though fortunately not needed, but Capt. Jewett gave Capt. Joseph 70 barrels out of the 200-barrel school for his kindness.

The fare of sch. Corsair sold to John Pew & Son at $10.80 per barrel for Bay of Fundy mackerel rimmed, $11.75 per barrel for Georges plain and $12.75 per barrel for Georges rimmed.

The fare of sch. Electric Flash, Matinicus rimmed fish, sold to Wm. H. Jordan at $13 per barrel. The remainder of the fare, Georges and Bay of Fundy fish, brought market prices.

The fare of sch. Navahoe, Georges rimmed, sold to the Andrew Co. at $13 per barrel.

The fare of sch. Centennial sold to Slade Gorton at $11.50 per barrel, clear of the barrel.

The fare of sch. Norumbega, Bay of Fundy plain mackerel, sold to the Gloucester Mackerel Co. at $10.50 per barrel.

The fare of schs. Henry M. Stanley, Oliver Wendell Holmes and Mary A. Gleason sold to William H. Jordan, the latter at $11.50 per barrel.

The fare of sch. Hiram Lowell sold to Reed & Gamage at $10 per barrel for plain Bay of Fundy fish and $11.75 per barrel for plain Georges.

The fare of sch. Nellie Dixon, consisted of Bay of Fundy plain mackerel and sold in Boston at $10 per barrel.

At Boston this morning are 40 barrels fresh mackerel from Portland and 200 barrels from Yarmouth, N. S.

Douglass' trap had 800 tinker mackerel this morning. Nelson's traps had 700 count and Heath's trap four barrels, also tinkers.

Good Stock.

Sch. Volant, Capt. Miles Somers stocked $2150 on her recent shack trip, the crew sharing $64. On her last three trips the crew has shared $190 each.

Good Fare.

Sch. Horace B. Parker, Capt. William H. Thomas, arrived from Sable Island bank this morning with a fine fare of 130,000 pounds of salt and fresh cod.

A BUSY PLACE.Tons of Fish Landed at Davis Bros.' Wharf.*Over a Million Pounds Brought in Ten Days.

Perhaps the busiest place in the city during the past ten days has been the wharf of Davis Bros. During that time a dozen vessels, nearly all with big fares, have taken out their trips at the wharf and beside this, six of the firm vessels have fitted out from the same wharf. In addition to these things have been the curing and making of fish, and also the shipments, which have been large, as the firm does a big business.

The wharf has been fairly blocked with business and fish, but thanks to the excellent system of Mr. Fred L. Davis, the active member of the firm, everything has gone along smoothly and the work accomplished without the slightest delay. Here are some of the fares handled:

Sch. Mabel D. Hines, 290,000 pounds salt cod.

Sch. Maggie and May, 304,000 pounds salt cod.

Sch. John L. Nicholson, 225,000 pounds salt cod.

Sch. Lizzie M. Stanwood, 150,000 pounds salt cod.

Sch. Georgie Campbell, 200,000 pounds salt cod.

Sch. Agnes, 35,000 pounds salt cod and 60,000 pounds fresh cod.

Sch. Oreg, 23,000 pounds salt and fresh cod.

Sch. Annie Greenlaw, 7000 pounds salt cod.

Sch. Braganza, 60,000 pounds fresh fish.

Sch. Oliver F. Kilham, 40,000 pounds fresh fish.

Sch. Harvester, 120,000 pounds fresh fish.

A total of 1,221,000 pounds of salt cod and 280,000 pounds of fresh fish, mostly all cod.

This immense amount of fish represents a cash outlay of very nearly, if not over, $45,000, which is a large amount to put into codfish in ten days, especially for a concern which deals exclusively in whole fish.

Beside the above big amount of fish, the schooners Oregos, Annie Greenlaw and Margaret, belonging to Davis Bros., have landed halibut fares at other wharves.

Good Trip.

Sch. Effie Morrissey, Capt. Joshua W. Stanley, arrived from Sable Island bank yesterday afternoon with a fine fare of 130,000 pounds of cod, 40,000 pounds of which are salt fish. Big fares are regular with Capt. Stanley.
